

BUGATTI PHOTO RELEASE: TWO WORLD SPEED RECORD CARS AT THE NUERBURGRING

Two world speed champions made their powerful appearance yesterday at this year's ADAC Zurich 24h Race at the Nuerburgring, Germany.

The fastest production road car in the world, a Bugatti Veyron 16.4 Super Sport, and the fastest production roadster on earth, a Veyron 16.4 Grand Sport Vitesse, met on the Nordschleife for the first time in Bugatti history to be the highlight of the so called Lap of Honour which took place just prior to the official start of the toughest endurance race in the world. More than 200,000 visitors witnessed both 1,200 hp super sports cars parading on this legendary course.
